

Suggested Writing Schedule

Monday

Brainstorm a list of reasons why teachers shouldn't give homework. Choose an audience. Select 2 or 3 points from my brainstorm list that will speak to my target audience. Arrange the points into an effective order.

Then think about how ironic it is that my homework is to write about why teachers shouldn't give homework.

Tuesday

Write my 2 to 3 paragraphs.

Wednesday

Let my essay sit around today getting cold.

Thursday

Reread my essay out loud and laugh at my mistakes. Then change what I need to so I can make the essay better.

Friday

Reread my essay from a printed sheet of paper, not from a computer screen. Change anything I need to. Make my essay look like the essay on the Homework Format sheet Mrs. Watson gave me.

Saturday

Sit back and relax because I don't have to write anything else. I'm good to go.

Monday

Hand in my polished essay to Mrs. Watson.
