

Grading Grid for Report/Research Paper

Title of Report: _____

Student's Name: _____

Is the topic interesting and has it been narrowed down and focused to a manageable size? 1-10 points	<input type="radio"/>
Do the title and introduction interest the reader? 1-5 points	<input type="radio"/>
Is the main idea clear? Is it near the end of the first paragraph? 1-10 pts	<input type="radio"/>
Is each point strong? Does each support the main idea? Are the ideas clearly expressed and of value? 1-20 points	<input type="radio"/>
Does the student cite all borrowed facts, ideas, quotations, and so on? 1-10 points	<input type="radio"/>
Does each point have a clear topic sentence? Does each paragraph adequately support its topic sentence? 1-15 points	<input type="radio"/>
Are the paragraphs arranged in an effective order? Are there transitions between the paragraphs, if needed? 1-5 pts	<input type="radio"/>
Does the conclusion restate or sum up the main idea in a new way and give food for thought? 1-5 points	<input type="radio"/>
Is it clear that the student organized his/her material before writing? 1-10 points	<input type="radio"/>
Is it clear that the research was done well? 1-10 points	<input type="radio"/>
Extra credit: Is there something noteworthy in the writing, the expression of ideas, or in the research? 1-10 points	<input type="radio"/>
Grade for Content	<input type="radio"/>

Comments:

Are in-text citations correct and used where needed? Is the works-cited page correct? 1-20 points	<input type="radio"/>
How are the spelling, capitalization, punctuation, sentence fragments, run-ons, and so on? 1-20 points	<input type="radio"/>
Are there separate paragraphs for the intro, each point, and conclusion? 1-20 points	<input type="radio"/>
Was the paper handed in on time? 1-20 points	<input type="radio"/>
Did the student follow the written instructions? 1-20 points	<input type="radio"/>
Grade for Grammar/Mechanics	<input type="radio"/>