

Meet Mr. Twain--or Is it Mr. Clemens?

Illuminating Literature: When World Collide
CHESS Thursday Academic Co-op

Across

- 1 Became an apprentice and later a pilot on one of these
- 4 Denounced violence against this group
- 6 His steamboat was fired upon during this war
- 12 His wife's father demanded these types of letters before Sam could marry his daughter
- 13 Where he wrote "Puddin'head Wilson"
- 15 His adventures in the Holy Land can be found in....
- 16 His story about this animal was an instant hit in the New York Saturday Press
- 19 A book he wrote about his trip to Europe after his son died
- 21 Who he often blamed when people in his family died
- 24 Had to learn to write left-handed because of this
- 26 Livy's nickname for him
- 27 Paid $25 per week for this job

Down

- 2 A quote from his novel compared his wife to this place
- 3 Published these about former-president Ulysses S. Grant
- 5 The comet visible on the day of his birth and death
- 7 One book he liked to read
- 8 Loved technology but refused to invest in this because the service was so bad
- 9 His brother who died in a boiler explosion
- 10 His pseudonym, used first in 1863
- 11 The shape of the summerhouse where he wrote most of his most famous works
- 14 Who he blamed for all his losses in life
- 17 These were his friends growing up. He listened to and later used their dialect in his work.
- 18 What the novel "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" was referred to as
- 20 State where he was born
- 22 This family member died when Sam was only 11
- 23 When he played billiards, he also enjoyed several....
- 25 He had a son and ____ daughters